

OUR PAST

In May of 1997, the Edmondson-Telford Center for Children began servicing abused and neglected children. The Center provides child victims a friendly environment for interacting with law enforcement, social services and prosecutors.

OUR PRESENT

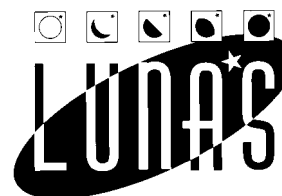

-  Served over 6000 children and families in Hall and Dawson Counties
-  Conducted over 4500 Forensic Examination Interviews on sexually abused victims
-  Coordinated hundreds of child abuse investigations with law enforcement & social services in Hall, Dawson and surrounding counties
-  Raised community awareness and provided programs for child abuse education
